

Akram Atallah, Chief Executive Officer, Identity Digital

Arkam is a senior executive with more than 25 years of technology management experience. His role includes directing all aspects of company/division activities including strategic planning, revenue and net income growth strategies, product development, project management, engineering, marketing and sales, operations, Intellectual Property and legal issues.

Previously, Akram served as ICANN's Chief Operating Officer. His diversified technology experience runs the gamut from engineering to operations to product development and marketing. Arkam makes it his mission to drive positive change and growth by utilizing best-in-class techniques.

LinkedIn: <https://www.linkedin.com/in/akram-atallah/>